THE EIFFEL TOWER

5 USEFUL FACTS

- The Eiffel Tower is the tallest building in Paris (324m).
- It was built as an entrance to the 1889 World Fair, which marked the 100-year celebration of the French Revolution.
- The Tower is named after its designer, Gustave Eiffel.
- Every hour in the evening, the Eiffel Tower lights up and sparkles for a few minutes.
- There are 3 levels for visitors. The third one is so high you can only get there by lift.

Come up and join me Tom! Oh... but you need to get a ticket first.

Don't move Susie, I want to take a photo of you!

Which of these 3 strings has Tom's entry ticket to the Eiffel Tower?
